

SALMA ASHRAF AWARDED PH. D DEGREE

Salma Ashraf D/o Prof. (Dr) Peer Mohammad Ashraf has been awarded Ph. D Degree in comparative literature by the university of Hyderabad on the basis of the thesis entitled "contemporary short fiction from Kashmir: A comparative study of three women writers. These writers are Mehfooza Jan, Tarannum Reyaz & Khema Koul who write short stories in Kashmiri, Urdu & Hindi respectively. She has selected these three women writers for study for the reasons that she considers them as very important as they discuss a variety of issues, have not been translated much and barely appear in any Indian anthologies. Therefore, she has undertaken the task of translating some of their short stories into English and has also endeavored to place their work in the context of Indian Literatures. She has translated around 30 short stories by these writers into English for study, to include issues as diverse as possible. Salma believes that a comparative study of these largely marginalized writers would make the beginnings of understanding the various contexts in which Kashmiri women write (about) their lives. She says "They deserve to be brought to our attention, introduced, discussed and their works critically analyzed, so as to facilitate and foreground the articulation of their 'Voices' Earlier Salma Ashraf has worked on poetry by Kashmiri women writers as part of her M. Phil Project. Titled as, women poets of Kashmir: A comparative study" She has critically analysed the works of Nasim Shafai, Tarannum Reyaz & Syeda Afshana.
