

Spend funds on genuine cricketing activities only, JKCA tells officials

ABID KHAN

Srinagar, Aug 1: Expressing displeasure over 'wasteful expenditures' on functions and shows, the J&K Cricket Association (JKCA) has asked its officials to ensure money is spent on genuine cricketing activities only.

the circular reads. "Proper estimate and details of expenditures to be made are to be formulated and it cannot be a free all affair. Simple allotment of funds is not the issue but what matters is proper spending on genuine activities and proper accounting is what matters."

"Appointing large number of observers, overall observers and coaches and camp in charges cannot be approved. Minimum necessary management staff has to be deployed to achieve the required objectives. Stress has to be laid on real objectivity and not on publicity and shows and demand for allotment of funds. JKCA funds are meant for all cricketers of J&K and not for office bearers to play with these (sic) on unauthorized activity. All office bearers have to follow a code of administrative discipline and conduct," it reads.

We request everyone to stand for the cause and help these beleaguered players to get justice," the statement further added. J&K Sports Development Association (JKSDA) Vice-President Altaf-Ur-Rehman in a statement has asked JKPCDC to roll back the decision or face consequences.
