

Ghanaian military official appointed head of UNMOGIP

YOSHITA SINGH

United Nations, July 2: A top Ghanaian military official has been appointed head of the UN military observer group stationed along the LoC between India and Pakistan.

UN chief Ban Ki-moon announced the appointment of Major General Delali Johnson Sakyi of Ghana as Chief Military Observer and Head of Mission for the United Nations Military Observer Group in India and Pakistan (UNMOGIP).

Sakyi, 59, succeeds Major General Young-Bum Choi of the Republic of Korea, who completed his two-year assignment in June.

With more than 35 years of military command and staff experience at national and international levels, Sakyi served most recently as Force Commander for the UN Mission in South Sudan.

He has held command and staff positions in the Ghana Armed Forces including Assistant Commandant of the Ghana Armed Forces Command and Staff College, Junior Division and Commander of the Army Combat Training School. His peacekeeping experience includes Abidjan Sector Commander of the UN Operation in Cote d'Ivoire from 2008 to 2009 and Commander of the Ghana contingent in four UN and two ECOWAS (Economic Community Of West African States) peacekeeping operations, a statement issued by Ban's spokesperson here said.

Delali Johnson Sakyi

Sakyi is a graduate of the Command and Staff College, Accra, Ghana and the ECOWAS Senior Mission Leaders Course in Abuja, Nigeria. UNMOGIP's headquarters are in Islamabad from November-April and in Srinagar from May-October every year. UNMOGIP observers have been located at the ceasefire line between India and Pakistan in Jammu and Kashmir since 1949 and supervise the ceasefire between the two neighbours.

As of May this year, UNMOGIP has 40 military observers, 23 international civilian personnel and 45 local civilian staff.

The observer group is financed by the United Nations regular budget and appropriations for biennium 2014 - 2015 are USD 19.64 million. PH

India to speed up MLA Treaties with neighbours

New Delhi, July 2: Eying deeper international cooperation especially with India's neighbours including Pakistan, Home Minister

Rajnath Singh today directed his officials to ensure Mutual Legal Assistance Treaty in criminal matters are entered into with as many countries as possible.

The Home Ministry is also keen to ramp up Joint Working Groups on counter-terrorism with other countries and groupings.

The directions by the new Home Minister was given during a review meeting of the functioning of the Policy Planning Division in the Home Ministry.

The Home Minister wanted that avenues for strengthening bilateral security relations with neighbouring countries be explored, a statement by the Ministry said.

It added that Singh "desired that efforts be made to ensure that Mutual Legal Assistance Treaty (MLAT) in criminal matters are entered into with as many countries as possible, and specifically with the neighbouring countries".

Home Ministry sources said India currently has MLAT signed with 36 countries and another 15 are in the pipeline.

Though India, along with other SAARC countries, has signed a Convention on Mutual Assistance in Criminal Matters in 2008, New Delhi is keen that MLAT is also signed with individual neighbours.

Asked if Pakistan is also being looked at for signing such a treaty, sources said "the policy is equal with all neighbours. We had moved a proposal earlier also but Pakistan had not responded positively. We will prepare the groundwork and it will be raised during the meeting of the Indo-Pak Joint Commission as and when it happens".

While India has ratified the SAARC Convention, it will come into force after ratification of the Convention by Nepal, Pakistan and Afghanistan.

HC rejects PIL against exclusion of Arabic, Persian as papers in CSE

New Delhi, July 2: The Delhi High Court today refused to entertain a PIL seeking quashing of a UPSC notification by which Arabic and Persian languages were excluded from the list of optional subjects for the main Civil Services Examinations.

"How this issue falls under the public interest? They all are IAS aspirants and they can come forward to file a case," a bench, comprising Chief Justice G Rohini and Justice Rajiv Sahai Endlaw, said.

"Do you (petitioner) want us to stall the entire selection process? We are satisfied with UPSC's response," the court said while dismissing the PIL filed by Delhi-based lawyer Shahid Ali on the issue.

The PIL had sought quashing of "March 5, 13 notification, published by UPSC in the gazette on March 6, whereby UPSC excluded Arabic and Persian from the list of optional subjects mentioned in group 2 'literature of languages' from the main examination of civil services conducted by UPSC." It had also sought a direction to UPSC that Arabic and Persian be included "again in the list of subjects mentioned in group 2 'literature of languages' of the main examination of civil services conducted by UPSC."

The plea referred to the response of UPSC given to Ali's earlier representation and said it was the Congress-led UPA-II which had decided to exclude the languages, opted by the religious minority in Civil Services exams, from the list of optional subjects on the ground that they did not fall under the Eighth Schedule of the Constitution.

"On the one hand, the government claims, propagates and even recommends to include students of Madarasas and of minorities in the mainstream, but on the other hand have excluded these two languages, which shall result in creating complete deprivation of students having Arabic and Persian background from being included in mainstream," the plea said. PTI
