

CRPF Commandant killed in anti-Naxal operation in Bihar

Jamui (Bihar), July 4: A CRPF Commandant was killed during an anti-Naxal operation in Lakharia forest region in Jamui district today. Commandant Hari Kant Jha, who was the second-in-command of CRPF base in Jamui, got an information around 4 am that Maoists were camping in the forests, Additional SP R N Tiwary, who is also holding the charge of Jamui SP said.

"Jha formed a team of CRPF jawans and led them to the forest. They came across the Maoists and an encounter ensued. Jha was hit by bullets and died on the spot. The battle continued for over two hours," Tiwary said.

Tiwary said CRPF personnel from other camps had been dispatched to the place of the incident, which is around 32 km from the Khaira police station and lies close to Jamui's border with Jharkhand. "The body of the Commandant has been recovered by the CRPF personnel and it is being brought to the police station," he said.

CRPF Deputy Inspector General (DIG) Chiranjeev Prasad said senior officials had rushed to Jamui to take stock of the situation and intensive combing operation had been launched in areas surrounding the place of incident.

"As per our reports, the encounter began at around 5 AM when Jha led our forces inside the jungle. A few Maoists also seem to have been killed and injured in the incident. The place has been surrounded and our additional troops are reaching there," Prasad said. Jamui, bordering Jharkhand, is considered a hotbed of Maoists in Bihar with other districts like Gaya, Aurangabad, Munger and Lakhisarai.

Sensitise NGOs on rules for receiving foreign grants: HM

New Delhi, July 4: All non-government organisations (NGOs) receiving foreign grants need to be sensitised about compliance of rules in this regard, Home Minister Rajnath Singh said today. Singh's comments, at a meeting to review the working of the Foreigners Division under Home Ministry, came in the backdrop of a recent report by Intelligence Bureau (IB) which alleged misuse of foreign grants by NGOs to obstruct various ongoing developmental projects.

The Foreigners Division made a presentation to the Home Minister on Visa Policy Citizenship Act, Foreigners' Contribution and

Registration Act (FCRA) and related issues. "The Home Minister appreciated the FCRA outreach seminars in different parts of the country and desired that all non-government organisations (NGOs) receiving foreign funds are sensitised about the compliance with FCRA Act and rules," according to a statement issued by the MHA. During the meeting, it was explained to the Minister that the integrated online visa system presently covers 148 Indian Missions and the online foreigners' registration system inside India has reached 80 per cent coverage, the statement said.

9 Pak prisoners freed by India

Lahore, July 4: Nine Pakistani prisoners, including five fishermen, were today handed over by Indian authorities to Pakistani para-military officials at the Wagah Border. The Punjab Rangers recorded the statements of the prisoners before handing them over to Edhi Welfare Foundation. Five of the prisoners are fishermen while the others are those who illegally crossed into the Indian side some time ago, officials said here. "None of the family members of the freed prisoners had come here to receive them. We have handed them over to Edhi where they could stay as long as they are not reunited with their families," an official said.

Pak officials say military offensive displaces over 5.7 lakh

Islamabad, July 4: Over 5,72,000 people have been displaced in Pakistan military's offensive against Taliban in the restive North Waziristan province, an official said today.

"The number of displaced people registered so far is 5,72,5295. They belong to 44,600 families," Commissioner of Bannu Syed Mohsin Ali said. He said government has set up special registration point for these people.

The government is providing help in a well-organised manner to the main city of Bannu where displaced are being kept, Ali added.

Ali said that "Financial support of Rs 12,000 per family has already been given to 28,000 families and soon we will begin the second phase of more cash support and each family will be given another Rs 28,000."

Total cash support was enhanced to Rs 40,000 after Prime Minister Nawaz Sharif visited the displaced last month. More than 70 per cent of the displaced people were provided with the food and other essential items, military spokesman in Bannu Brigadier Aftab said.

"So far 40,000 families have received ration," he said.

The Pakistan government had tried to negotiate a peace deal with the banned militant group to find a solution to the decade-long insurgency that has claimed over 40,000 lives. But peace talks failed and after a series of terror attacks, including one on Karachi international airport.

The army launched operation "Zarb-e-Azb" on June 15, an all out assault against local and foreign militants linked to al-Qaeda. So far a total of 386 militants and 19 soldiers have been killed in the offensive. The operation is slowly moving due to Ramadan and scorching summer as military is clearing the areas.

A military official said that so far major parts of Miranshah town have been cleared. The militants have not posed any major challenge to the army and there are reports that most of them have fled to Afghanistan.
